Over the course of summer vacation weeks, Elaine and I have been to Lake Michigan, Lake Erie, and the Pacific Ocean. We have seen lush Pennsylvania forests as well as dry California hills (some with clouds of smoke from the brush fires). We have biked, planed, sailed, and motored our way through these changing landscapes, enjoying God's creation in all its splendor.

And now, comes September! And yes, there are "changing landscapes" to navigate:

- We change back to 3 services on September 13th—nothing new, but remember the change to 8, 9:30 & 11!
- We are changing confirmation, with revised content, new leaders, and a new class. Thanks to Rose Bankhead, Kathy Brodie, Sherry Dittrich, Kevin Hoffman, Doug Ming, Elaine Osterbur, Joe Zdybel and Pastor Kimberly for all the guidance thus far!
- We have Pastor Kimberly with us through December, at least, and we look forward to her preaching, teaching, and leading...and at the same time, we look to how our staff might change as we look for a more long-term Youth & Family person in upcoming months.
- We adjust to my new role with the Synod as director of candidacy, and how that will play out with a new Bishop (remember: Rev. Steve Marsh's installation on Sept. 26!) and staff. MANY thanks for the affirmation of that role at the August 23 congregational meeting!

There are also new offerings for the Monday night Creative Arts series; a new time for choir on Wednesdays; new Sunday School teachers beginning at Rally Day on Sept. 13th, and more...

And through these changing landscapes, our Lord remains a constant guide and source of grace...our Savior continues to call us from the depths of our sins and failures to be all that we can be through him... God's Spirit empowers and moves us to faithful witness and the new possibilities of being "church"...

See you IN church, to be empowered for DOING church in worshipping, acting, loving, and knowing!

Greetings to you all as we welcome autumn!

First, I want to thank you for your welcome of me this summer. It has been quite the experience: Vacation Bible School, hospital and nursing home visits, preaching, Confirmation planning teams, and Wednesday evening worship services. If you've participated in any of these, then you know that it's been a busy summer.

I am looking forward to continuing our relationship together this fall. There will be some continued activities, such as preaching, assisting with the job search for a new staff member, advising the Confirmation team and pastoral visits to shut-in's. Added to that are some exciting new possibilities:

- Joint Women's Retreat, with St. Thomas, Sterling Heights, October 2-3, in Ortonville. (see Pat Jensen to sign up)
- Small Group on vocation: Listen! God is Calling, exploring our Christian vocation in daily living, and Lutheran perspectives on vocation. (dates/time TBD)
- Occasional preaching (Oct. 18, Dec. 13, others TBD)
- Offering pastoral care to Cross members

That might seem like a short list to some, while to others it might seem exhausting, considering I also serve Genesis Lutheran Church in Detroit as co-pastor 2/3 time. Some might just say, "Well, that's just the life of a pastor, always busy and always changing." My simple prayer is that whatever happens, we can walk together this autumn in the grace of God, bound together in the name of Jesus, and in step with God's Holy Spirit.

Peace,

Pastor Kimberly

Clothing Swap

Save your gently used, no longer needed clothes! Christ Lutheran Church is having a Clothing Swap on Saturday, September 12, from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. If you have never heard about a clothing swap, here is how it works. At home, sort and fold CLEAN clothes (clothes you wouldn't mind putting on your family to go out in public) by size into boxes or bags. Then, when you get to the swap, sort the clothes by size onto marked tables. When the Swap starts, you go to the tables with the size clothes you are looking for, and take what you need, free of charge. No strings attached. There are no minimums or maximums. Some families come with lots of clothes, and leave with a few clothes or nothing. Other families really in need of clothing come with little or nothing, but leave with bags of clothes. Again, no money changes hand.

HOW CAN YOU PARTICIPATE? Look for clothes you might like to bring. Wash, fold, and sort them by size. Then call all your friends and family and ask them to do the same. Then come alone or as a group to the Swap. WHAT SIZES? All sizes of baby, kids and adult clothing (including coats, shoes, and accessories). VERY lightly stained clothes are OK as some people don't mind these for work or play, or are talented at removing stains. However, all clothing MUST BE CLEAN. Drop for set up will be Friday, September 11, 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Our Habitat For Humanity home will come to completion and be dedicated in October. Many thanks to our hard working teams that volunteered their Saturday afternoons to help. Build your financial foundation with life insurance

September is Life Insurance Awareness Month, the perfect time to get started

“I know I need it, but I do not want to think about it now”.
“I will deal with it later, it’s not a priority”.
These are two of the most common responses when the topic of life insurance comes up. Despite being saddled with a reputation as one of the less exciting aspects of financial planning, life insurance still remains a product that many financial experts agree should be the foundation on which people should build their financial goals.

So this year, while September means fall and football, it also means Life Insurance Awareness Month. Financial services organizations nationwide, including Thrivent Financial, are teaming with the nonprofit Life and Health Insurance Foundation for Education (LIFE) to help talk about something that many of us just avoid when it comes up in conversation.

So why should you listen? First, think about your loved ones. The primary benefit of life insurance is to provide for them, helping them meet daily expenses and continue the activities of daily life without any further major disruption. Proceeds from life insurance can be used by families to pay bills—like credit card and mortgage bills—as well as daily necessities such as groceries, gas, etc. Without adequate life insurance coverage, many families could be placed under great financial distress to meet the ongoing financial obligations of their new lives.

Life insurance can also protect one’s spouse against sharp reductions in future pension and Social Security payments by replacing assets cut short by premature death. For example, it is not unusual for a surviving spouse to receive less than half of his or her spouse’s projected pension because death has interrupted anticipated contributions flowing into the plan.

And it's not just at home where life insurance can help. Life insurance can help business owners and others with significant assets to pass those assets to their loved ones in a tax-efficient manner. It also serves as a tremendous tool enabling people to support nonprofit organizations through charitable gifts.

Life insurance may not be a popular topic, but the security it offers brings a peace of mind that most people can't afford to live without. In addition, most people will find that life insurance coverage is a key component as they plan for their long-term financial goals. None of us can control whether we will have tomorrow, but protecting the people in our lives is something we can take control of today.
